

Network Pro

The world's most advanced communications hub for connected commercial refrigeration

The Network Pro delivers an always-on connected solution enabling you to get the most value possible from the AoFrio ecosystem. This represents the biggest enhancement of our market-leading commercial refrigeration IoT offering to date and is a direct response to the challenges that our customers face when it comes to managing widely dispersed cooler fleets.

By acting as a connectivity hub for AoFrio IoT devices (such as SCS, Click and Monitor) the Network Pro enables all the benefits of daily data collection and real-time alerts.
